

Comment on the Region's Transportation Future!

The Central Midlands Council of Governments (CMCOG) is inviting you to comment on the Midlands Tomorrow multi-modal long range transportation plan. This is a vision plan that considers transportation investments for the next 30 years – to the year 2035 – in order to address the transportation needs of the regional transportation system. The plan makes recommendation for improving major transportation issues such as congestion management, public transportation, motor freight, safety and security, quality of life enhancements, and capital improvements.

The schedule below highlights the dates, times, and locations for presentations of the plan as well as opportunities for public comment. Please join us and share your thoughts.
